

Productivity and Utilisation

Productivity assessments in the distribution centre and in manufacturing are a specialty of Hendersons.

The aim in each case is to identify and develop the best possible workplace configuration with equipment and handling support to ensure maximised effectiveness.

The findings are accompanied by advice on monitoring of performance and KPI's that work.